The Monthly Message by Rev'd Eileen Bangay

My son was asked to preach in the church of a friend, the other side of the city from where he lived. His wife went with him and picked up a leaflet advertising a coffee morning with plant sale, and needing some plants decided she would attend later in the week.

Peter went forward to preach looking really good (this is his unbiased mother writing) in his best Sunday suit, shirt and tie.

As the sermon went on, he first took off his tie, then his jacket, revealing the 'T' shirt underneath, then his trousers showing the shorts he was wearing. He was saying you don't have to dress up for God - He knows what you are like through and through. Whose opinion do you most want, that of your fellow church goers or God?

He then went on to talk of the way St Paul recommended we dress. Paul says that we should stand firm, with the belt of truth and the breastplate of righteousness. As shoes for your feet, put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the Gospel of peace. Have a helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. (Philippians 6 v 10 - 17).

And this is ideal clothing for us as we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit marking the birth of the Church. Having the Holy Spirit poured on us too will help us and all God's people - those who know Him and those who have yet to know Him - to find their way more easily. We merely have to ask and be ready!

A few days later my daughter-in-law went to the coffee morning and heard these two ladies talking about the preacher who 'took all his clothes off'. I asked her what the reaction had been - she nearly choked on her coffee but hoped the real message had got through.

God bless you and keep you.

Eileen

Donations Box

When you collect your tea and coffee this morning you will see collection box for your donations. Your donations can be towards the cost of the Newsletter, the refreshments or just because you want to. Thank you.

Fire Drill

Well, we finally held our fire drill last Sunday and thanks go to those of you who were there and took part in it. We have learned a few things more about evacuating the building and these will be reviewed by the Stewards.

Do not be surprised if we hold another fire drill over the coming weeks as we try to ensure that this is something we can do safely and efficiently.

Again, to those of you who took part, thank you very much.

Church Flowers

The flower list is on the notice board in the Welcome Area, if you want to sponsor the Church flowers on a given Sunday, please add your name to the list.

Closing Date for the next newsletter
Thursday 6th June please.

Newsletter

It seems that we are entering a quiet period at the moment for our Newsletter with not a great deal of news to bring you.

Our Newsletter is in a booklet and therefore has to have multiples of 4 pages so, if you are wondering why we have blank or almost blank pages this month, now you know.

Ministerial Vacancy (in case you missed it last week)

The Stewards met this past week with representative from the Diocese to discuss the vacancy here at Sinfin Moor Church.

We can now advise you that we have agreed that the advertisement will go in to the Anglican Church Times for 2 weeks in the middle of June.

A timescale for receipt of applications, shortlisting and interviews has been planned taking us in to July.

It is still too early to say when the appointment can be made but you will see we are making progress.

As always, we will keep you informed of progress.

We would ask you to uphold the process in your prayers praying that the right person for the job can be identified and appointed.

Sinfin Moor Church Prayer Diary

This is on page 10 this month and we would ask you to let us know of any prayers for people you want including and also, importantly, keep us abreast of the existing names so that we can properly reflect their need or change of circumstance.

Christian Aid Week, 2019

Many thanks to everyone who donated in any way to this year's Christian Aid appeal. We have raised an excellent total of £536.65p and this is how we did it:

Contents of gift envelopes...£333.50;

Quiz Sheets... £33;

Church coin collection ... £17.15;

"Live at Home" collection ... £123;

Sundry donations ... £30.

I would just like to thank you all so much for your faithful support, over the last ten years, in donating money, attending events, and helping to make those events happen, by manning stalls, entertaining and preparing refreshments at evening socials etc. So many people have helped in so many ways over the years...I will be forever grateful to them all. As a matter of interest, I have looked up the total amounts we made each year...and through your generosity, we have raised an amazing £9,329 for the work of Christian Aid. "God bless you" and "Thank you so much" on behalf of Christian Aid.

Doreen Hickman

ED: Thank you Doreen for raising so much, not just for this year but over the past 10 years. It is a marvellous achievement and there is no doubt that you are going to be a difficult act follow but isn't it wonderful to think how many people have benefitted from all that you and this Church have done. We are sure that we can continue to raise money for Christian Aid.
